

Rockwell Scott, M.S.

Project Role: User feedback, testing owner

Affiliated Organization: DelekUS

Job Title: Chief Information Officer at DelekUS

Relevant Job Experience:

- Rockwell Scott is a technology executive with more than 25 years of experience in IT engineering and supply chain/logistics management.
- As the CIO of DelekUS Holdings, he is responsible for cybersecurity as well as the business and technology alignment for the publicly held businesses of Delek US (DK) and Delek Logistics (DKL).
- As the Partner and GM of Supply Chain Engineering at Microsoft (MSFT), Scott was responsible for the digital transformation of the supply chain systems as well as the migration to cloud and PaaS. His most recent leadership positions, prior to joining Microsoft, were VP and CIO of the Americas for Ingram Micro (IM) and CISO of BrightPoint (CELL).
- Before joining the wireless and logistics industry, Scott held various senior IT management positions within several U.S. and U.S./multinational organizations.

Significant Accomplishments: Certified CISSP #116704 and HIPAA Certified Administrator.

Education:

- Currently pursuing master's in business administration (MBA) – International Business, University of Edinburgh, Edinburgh, UK (expected completion 2021)
- Masters and Advanced Post Graduate Certificate - Information Security Management from Villanova University, Villanova, PA.

Professional Affiliations and Committee Memberships: None to report.