H.2. In addition to the patent rights specified in Section H.1., the Governments of Israel and the United States shall have the right to use said product, technical information, data, know-how and Intellectual Property arising out of, or developed under, this Agreement for any noncommercial purpose, and without charge.

- H.3. In order that the rights of the Governments of Israel and the United States described herein shall be exercisable, the Proposer undertakes and agrees, on behalf of itself and the Consortium Members of its Team, that any component, element or other part of the system described as the product in the Preambles to this Agreement, whose use is necessary to the full enjoyment of the product, will be made available, at reasonable prices, by the relevant Consortium Members either as a commercially purchasable item, or by special arrangement, and will be sold to the Foundation and/or the Government of Israel and/or the Government of the United States, also at reasonable prices.
- H.4. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section H., it is understood and agreed that, so long as any Intellectual Property that comprises part or all of the product is marketed by any Consortium Members or by others with the rights to market such Intellectual Property, neither the Government of Israel nor the Government of the United States shall have the right to obtain a license to use such Intellectual Property unless the license fee normally imposed in the ordinary course of business by the Consortium Members or by others with the rights to market such Intellectual Property is paid, and the standard license agreement is executed.

 - (iii) any change in the activities of either Team as a result of which such Team is no longer interested in continuing the Program, and notwithstanding the continued interest of the other Team.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section I.1. or I.2., the Proposer or any Consortium Member may cure the default within thirty (30) calendar days after the date of its receipt of said notice of revocation.

- I.3. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement to the contrary, the Foundation shall not be obliged to provide any further funding after notice of revocation until and unless the said default is cured and so demonstrated to the reasonable satisfaction of the Foundation.
- I.4. Should the Award be revoked for reason of default or abandonment of Program, in addition to the Foundation's rights under Section I.5., the Foundation and the Governments of Israel and the United States shall continue to be entitled to all of their rights pursuant to Section H.
- I.5. If the Foundation shall revoke the Award as aforesaid, all funds given to Consortia in accordance with Section B.1. shall become due immediately, without need for demand, except for non-cancellable obligations that are committed at the time of termination and are considered expenditures. Such funds shall be repaid with interest at the Late Payment Interest Rate from the date of notice of the revocation.
- I.6. The Proposer may not terminate this Agreement or abandon the Program without the prior written consent of the Foundation, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. The Foundation declares that it will furnish such consent if it is satisfied that, despite good faith efforts, the Proposer has not succeeded in developing the technologies proposed in the Program.
- I.7. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement to the contrary, the Foundation, at the direction of the Energy Center, may discontinue the Program at any time if, acting in good faith, it will become dissatisfied with the performance of the Program, after notice has been given to the Proposer of such dissatisfaction, and the matter(s) have not been cured to the satisfaction of the Foundation.
